Three Things James Tells You About Your Trials:

What They Are:

1. They're _____.
2. They're _____.
3. But they're ultimately a _____, i.e. an unwanted _____ that can push you to _____ the basis of your faith in Jesus.

What They Do:

1. They _____ your faith.
2. They _____ your faith.

What You Need to Do:

Trials are news of doom if _____ is ultimate.

You assign value to your trials ('count it joy') since you know that, because of God, what you _____ from your trials is worth far more than what you _____.
